

Duct Protection Film Technical Data Sheet

Product Description:

TapeManBlue Duct Protection Film is a temporary protective mask designed to protect metal ducts during construction or transportation. The film is specially designed to stick to polished metals, making it the perfect protective film for Ducts and high pressure laminates. It is made with Premium Adhesive, low coat weight for easy release and minimal adhesion buildup. You can purchase it here.

Product Properties & Characteristics - Nominal Results:

Adhesion to Steel: PSTC-101 (oz/in)	7.5 to 9.5
Tensile Strength: PSTC-131 lb/sq in	7
Elongation: PSTC-131	325
Thickness: PSTC-133 (nominal)	2 mills

The values listed above are averages determined by standard production testing procedures. The suitability for use shall be determined by the user for the particular application.

Limitations of Warranty: Seller warrants to customers that coated products delivered by Seller to be free of defects in workmanship and to meet the specifications published, which are available upon request. For a period of six (6) months from date of delivery and in the event product proved to be defective, the excluding solution, at Seller's option, shall be a) refund the purchase price b) repair or c) replace the defective product. No acceptance or responsibility for loss, or expense, implied or otherwise, shall be assumed by seller or manufacturer. User assumes all risk and liability in connection herewith. This stated Warranty & Limitation of Liability can only be changed through a written agreement by an authorized officer of company.

TapeManBlue is here for you. Contact our US-based customer success team:

Phone: +1 \(855\) TAPE-MANTAPE-MAN) Email: info@tapemanblue.com